

On October 24th, 1926. Received the following information from Louise Geist: Finished with supper at 7:55 P.M., then went to the back stoop. Maria was in kitchen. Remained there until about 8:30 P.M. Louise there until about 9:15 P.M. Saw and heard Mrs. Hall and Willie at 7:55 P.M. then Louise went out on the back stoop. At about 9:30 P.M. Mrs. Hall rang for Louise and then went to bed at about 10 P.M. Louise said she saw Mills at the house on Saturday about 10 A.M., which would be the day the bodies were found. Barbara says she thinks it was Friday that Jimmie Mills was around, and they were not sure if there was anybody on the stoop talking at that time.

Louise also states that Catherine Rastall told her that Mrs. Mills left notes in church a good many times and put them in the bosses desk.

On this day I also went to Tingle's house and was informed that the family had moved to 18 Morrill Street, Mrs. Cobb (bakery) was just moving in and was formerly occupied by Tingle.

Mr. Dwight Greene on George Street above DeRussey's Lane heard no shots. Said that the man who works or the owner of the College Drug Store saw Mrs. Mills in the place at different times. Says the same of Mrs. Cobb.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hoag heard shots between 8:30 and 9 P.M., first one shot a pause and then a few more. About 4 or 5 shots in all coming from the direction of DeRussey's Lane. Mrs. Hoag was on stoop or porch and Mr. Hoag was closing the chickens for the night. Would not testify under oath with regards to the time but was sure it was dark when she heard the shots.
